

MISSION FACTS

At least 500 million people, one out every 12 on the planet, are living in a war zone, under a dictatorship and oppression, or in great deprivation.

HEART CHECK

What thing could you "give up" as a symbol of your devoted love for Christ? Today, sacrifice some convenience. Walk to work. Go without coffee. Give up TV. Fast lunch. During the sacrifice time – pray. List ten characteristics of a good disciple. Rate yourself. Mark three as starting points for your own spiritual growth.

THE MANDATE

Without faith, it is impossible to please God. He that comes to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him (Hebrews 11:6).

THE MEDITATION

Lord, coming to you in prayer demands faith. It demands that my focus be on "seeking you!" – and just things. I confess that much of my approach to prayer has been attempting to get you to please me. I know that I am growing in my relationship with you when that giant shift takes place. When prayer and my journey are no longer about what you do for me, about you walking with me, but about what I do for you and my walking with you. It is "impossible to please God!" I have been trying, in prayer, to get you to please me! Now, I see that when the shift comes, when my whole relationship is about "pleasing you" and "seeking you," then I am for the first time in a position to be rewarded by you.

If I genuinely know who and what you are – the pearl of great price, the treasure of all treasures, then nothing you ever put in my hand will be as important to me as you yourself are to me. Only when that shift comes will I be the safe recipient of all you can lay at my feet. And only then will you know that what you give into my hand will be used for your kingdom.

Let the cry of my heart be to please you. May I settle it in my heart. You are a good God. A God who rewards. May I trust you so much that I can radically obey you.

Pray for the Harvest one Sunday a month.
