

MISSION FACTS

Some 50,000 from among unreached people groups die daily without having heard the Gospel. That is about 26 million a year. More than 2000 every hour.

HEART CHECK

We are told by sociologists that each of us knows some 100 people, casual acquaintances in our world – those with whom we carpool, those in our soccer league, the lady at the dry-cleaners, the auto mechanic, a bank-teller. Who among them are you making me responsible – to pray for (the Great Commitment), to care about (the Great Commandment), or to share with (the Great Commission)?

THE MANDATE

If the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person...his blood I will require at the watchman's hand. So you, son of man: I have made a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them... if you warn the wicked...and he does not turn...you have delivered your soul (Ezekiel 33:6-9).

THE MEDITATION

Lord, you made Ezekiel a watchman. You told him to warn that nation. If he did not, their blood would be on his hands. We have attempted to put such passages away. They seem so out-of-place in these days of easy belief systems and seeker-friendly churches. We pay missionaries – but like Lady Macbeth, the spots are still on our hands! Like Pilot, we wash our hands of responsibility (Mt. 27:24). But is it that easy to dismiss? Can we really absolve ourselves?

In moments of prayerful honesty, with a dying world in clear view, we are overwhelmed with the commission to reach the world. We shrink back. We don't know where to begin, we rationalize. With an unsaved neighbor living next door, we are intimidated by the challenge to even reach out to him. We can wait no longer. Show us the one, the handful, perhaps even a dozen or so for whom we can pray.
