

MISSION FACTS

Christian churches spend 85% of their resources on their own development – personnel, finance, tools, even prayer. In the US, that number is 95%. All 6400 unreached people groups could be evangelized if American Evangelicals would give only .2% of their income to that cause.

HEART CHECK

Search my heart Lord. What do I need to surrender to you? My time, my possessions, my desires? As the old hymn goes: All to Jesus I surrender. All to Him I freely give; I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

THE MANDATE

Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you (Matthew 6:33).

THE MEDITATION

The kingdom – your rule and reign. In Matthew 6, Lord you touch the toughest disciplines of our lives – giving (Mt. 6:1-4), prayer (6:5-15) and fasting (6:16-18). This is stout stuff. These issues are the heart of being a disciplined follower. In them, the whole sphere of my existence is touched. Giving – my relationship with all things material. Prayer – my relationship with time and eternity, with the unseen dimension. Fasting – my relationship with all things internal, the flesh, my most powerful inner hungers. All things external. All things eternal. All things internal. The material things I own. The way I spend my time. The desires that control me. Here are the three power points for all of life.

I know that if I can't give it away, I don't own it – it owns me. If I don't have time to pray, I don't have control of my time at all. If the most important activity in which a human can engage, spending time with the Divine, is spurned, then my life is indeed out of control. I know that if I can't say "No!" to the desires of the flesh, the spirit-man within me will be forever crippled and powerless.

You called your disciples to these three simple disciplines – giving, prayer, and fasting. Help me to hear your call. My capacity to obey you and begin the journey as a serious soldier starts here.
