

MISSION FACTS

Some 50,000 of those among the unreached people groups die daily without having heard the Gospel. That is about 26 million a year. More than 2,000 every hour.

HEART CHECK

If you were sitting in the room with me and knew that I was hungry – could you, with all that you have eat comfortably? Ignore me? Hope I went away? Ask that I be removed? The world is now next door. Will you reach out to them?

THE MANDATE

The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Luke 10:2

THE MEDITATION

“The harvest!” It seems such an old-fashioned word today. We exist in the middle of church activities carried on ‘for us’, and altars that are far too often barren. The harvest, the lost are all around us – lost in the sense that they are not on the journey to make heaven home, lost in the sense of moral bearings, lost in terms of meaningful, eternal impact out of their lives – lost. Lost in things. Lost in themselves. Lost in pleasure. We pray for the lost – for the one billion who have never heard. For the 290 million in the USA and Canada who are not in Church today. We pray for the harvest.

We pray for the laborers. We pray for resolve to witness. To not exempt ourselves from the task. To go. To send others. But most of all – to pray. We repent. Indeed, we confess, that we have not prayed for the harvest. That our eyes have not been wet. That our knees are too smooth. That we have not assailed heaven for lost souls as we might have for missing persons – our own lost loved ones. And yet, we cannot confine this harvest concern to us! We must pray – and go first by prayer – into the harvest field.

Jesus urged us – to see the harvest! To review the inadequate depth of the labor force, and then pray. To earnestly pray. To pray to the Lord of the harvest that he would ‘thrust’ out laborers. We cannot do this – not alone. We cannot go in our own power – we must be propelled by the Spirit out of prayer.

The Great Commission begins its fulfillment in prayer! And when we join prayer and obedience, God opens doors. God puts the ‘go’ in our hearts. He grants both compassion and capacity. The need is overwhelming. The resources are inadequate. The difference is made in God’s direct involvement – and that is by prayer.

MISSION FACTS

Some 50,000 of those among the unreached people groups die daily without having heard the Gospel. That is about 26 million a year. More than 2,000 every hour.

HEART CHECK

If you were sitting in the room with me and knew that I was hungry – could you, with all that you have eat comfortably? Ignore me? Hope I went away? Ask that I be removed? The world is now next door. Will you reach out to them?

THE MANDATE

The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Luke 10:2

THE MEDITATION

“The harvest!” It seems such an old-fashioned word today. We exist in the middle of church activities carried on ‘for us’, and altars that are far too often barren. The harvest, the lost are all around us – lost in the sense that they are not on the journey to make heaven home, lost in the sense of moral bearings, lost in terms of meaningful, eternal impact out of their lives – lost. Lost in things. Lost in themselves. Lost in pleasure. We pray for the lost – for the one billion who have never heard. For the 290 million in the USA and Canada who are not in Church today. We pray for the harvest.

We pray for the laborers. We pray for resolve to witness. To not exempt ourselves from the task. To go. To send others. But most of all – to pray. We repent. Indeed, we confess, that we have not prayed for the harvest. That our eyes have not been wet. That our knees are too smooth. That we have not assailed heaven for lost souls as we might have for missing persons – our own lost loved ones. And yet, we cannot confine this harvest concern to us! We must pray – and go first by prayer – into the harvest field.

Jesus urged us – to see the harvest! To review the inadequate depth of the labor force, and then pray. To earnestly pray. To pray to the Lord of the harvest that he would ‘thrust’ out laborers. We cannot do this – not alone. We cannot go in our own power – we must be propelled by the Spirit out of prayer.

The Great Commission begins its fulfillment in prayer! And when we join prayer and obedience, God opens doors. God puts the ‘go’ in our hearts. He grants both compassion and capacity. The need is overwhelming. The resources are inadequate. The difference is made in God’s direct involvement – and that is by prayer.

UNREACHED
PEOPLE GROUP TO PRAY FOR

From China:
The Mongol People

MISSION
QUOTE

Is the Great Commission of our Lord still binding on us? Can we not do more than we are doing now?

William Carey

INTERCEDE FOR...

MONDAY

Finding the Unreached

I pray today for Aabha, whose name means 'light'. But he will grow to be a Hindu, in a world with 330 million gods, all distant – I pray that somehow, Aabha, will hear about Jesus and come to know that God loves him.

TUESDAY

Nurturing New Believers

I pray now for the almost two billion people who have not yet heard about Jesus – no Bibles, no Jesus film, no Christian church on the corner, no message of hope. I pray for Christian radio broadcasts, for missionaries to the truly unreached and newly saved. I pray for Christians who live in areas dominated by Islam, Buddhism and Hinduism, often the poorest of the world's poor. Make them strong. Supply their needs. Let their faith endure.

WEDNESDAY

Investing

I ask you Lord, for a larger share of our money and missionary force to be spent on the truly unreached, those who have never heard. Many of these people live in the 10/40 window. God, open doors for us to reach the genuinely unreached. Help us to appropriate more of our resources to these people who remain in darkness.

THURSDAY

Sending

I pray for the harvest-force. Lord, I thank you for every one of some 140,000 Protestant Missionaries, 64,000 from the US. Bless them for going. For the work they do. But Father, we weep that less than 3% of these work among unreached peoples. Send laborers, Lord.

FRIDAY

Harvesting

I pray for the 360,000 newborns that came into the world today – almost a quarter of a million born beyond the shadow of Christianity. No churches. No preachers. No missionaries. Help us reach them, for some, will live tragically short lives. Today, I pray for the 151,600 people who will face eternity – many, who have never heard that Jesus came to save them.

UNREACHED
PEOPLE GROUP TO PRAY FOR

From China:
The Mongol People

MISSION
QUOTE

Is the Great Commission of our Lord still binding on us? Can we not do more than we are doing now?

William Carey

INTERCEDE FOR...

MONDAY

Finding the Unreached

I pray today for Aabha, whose name means 'light'. But he will grow to be a Hindu, in a world with 330 million gods, all distant – I pray that somehow, Aabha, will hear about Jesus and come to know that God loves him.

TUESDAY

Nurturing New Believers

I pray now for the almost two billion people who have not yet heard about Jesus – no Bibles, no Jesus film, no Christian church on the corner, no message of hope. I pray for Christian radio broadcasts, for missionaries to the truly unreached and newly saved. I pray for Christians who live in areas dominated by Islam, Buddhism and Hinduism, often the poorest of the world's poor. Make them strong. Supply their needs. Let their faith endure.

WEDNESDAY

Investing

I ask you Lord, for a larger share of our money and missionary force to be spent on the truly unreached, those who have never heard. Many of these people live in the 10/40 window. God, open doors for us to reach the genuinely unreached. Help us to appropriate more of our resources to these people who remain in darkness.

THURSDAY

Sending

I pray for the harvest-force. Lord, I thank you for every one of some 140,000 Protestant Missionaries, 64,000 from the US. Bless them for going. For the work they do. But Father, we weep that less than 3% of these work among unreached peoples. Send laborers, Lord.

FRIDAY

Harvesting

I pray for the 360,000 newborns that came into the world today – almost a quarter of a million born beyond the shadow of Christianity. No churches. No preachers. No missionaries. Help us reach them, for some, will live tragically short lives. Today, I pray for the 151,600 people who will face eternity – many, who have never heard that Jesus came to save them.

Produced for Church of God
World Missions

Dr. Tim Hill, Director

Church of God - Prayer Ministries

P. Douglas Small, Coordinator

www.praycog.org

1-855-84-ALIVE

Produced for Church of God
World Missions

Dr. Tim Hill, Director

Church of God - Prayer Ministries

P. Douglas Small, Coordinator

www.praycog.org

1-855-84-ALIVE