

MISSION FACTS

In just over two years more than 30,000 Chinese Xiao gave their lives to Christ. It all started with a showing of the "Jesus' film" and summer teams of 20-30 Christians who traveled there to teach English and witness one-on-one to the elite students of the province.

HEART CHECK

What is it about my life that convinces others that I am a disciple of Christ? Can it be seen in my behavior, my appetites, my attitudes, my schedule or my priorities? If being a disciple means being under some discipline – am I conforming to any stretching mandates to grow and guard the garden of my life? Am I just drifting from Sunday to Sunday in the spiritual life?

THE MANDATE

Give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Do not neglect the gift that is in you ... given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership. Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all ... in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

1 Timothy 4:13-16

THE MEDITATION

Lord, I may have never really been a disciple – a learner, a studious student, an under-study of some godly mature believer, an apprentice to a spiritual leader. Yes, I prayed the "sinner's prayer." And almost immediately sat down in the pew. I skipped discipleship school. I didn't plan to go into ministry, so I didn't think I needed to be disciplined. Now, I am a part of a spiritually untutored generation. We now make up the majority in the North American Church. Since we were never disciples, we can't disciple others, not effectively. Worship and experience are all we've known, and we are now finding them shallow anchors without deeply buried truth in our hearts. Is it too late to get my discipleship GED? Too late to learn? Forgive me, if by my lack of knowledge I have failed others. Help me now apply myself to learning, commit to grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ - that I might disciple others. Give me a spiritual mentor! Help me to receive instruction that I might instruct others. This is not comfortable for me, Lord. But I now refuse, having received the priceless gift of salvation, to fail to cultivate its deeper meanings. I refuse to die without making a difference in the lives of others. I am ready to go back to school, Lord. I am ready to become a disciple in order that I might make disciples.

MISSION FACTS

In just over two years more than 30,000 Chinese Xiao gave their lives to Christ. It all started with a showing of the "Jesus' film" and summer teams of 20-30 Christians who traveled there to teach English and witness one-on-one to the elite students of the province.

HEART CHECK

What is it about my life that convinces others that I am a disciple of Christ? Can it be seen in my behavior, my appetites, my attitudes, my schedule or my priorities? If being a disciple means being under some discipline – am I conforming to any stretching mandates to grow and guard the garden of my life? Am I just drifting from Sunday to Sunday in the spiritual life?

THE MANDATE

Give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Do not neglect the gift that is in you ... given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership. Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all ... in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

1 Timothy 4:13-16

THE MEDITATION

Lord, I may have never really been a disciple – a learner, a studious student, an under-study of some godly mature believer, an apprentice to a spiritual leader. Yes, I prayed the "sinner's prayer." And almost immediately sat down in the pew. I skipped discipleship school. I didn't plan to go into ministry, so I didn't think I needed to be disciplined. Now, I am a part of a spiritually untutored generation. We now make up the majority in the North American Church. Since we were never disciples, we can't disciple others, not effectively. Worship and experience are all we've known, and we are now finding them shallow anchors without deeply buried truth in our hearts. Is it too late to get my discipleship GED? Too late to learn? Forgive me, if by my lack of knowledge I have failed others. Help me now apply myself to learning, commit to grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ - that I might disciple others. Give me a spiritual mentor! Help me to receive instruction that I might instruct others. This is not comfortable for me, Lord. But I now refuse, having received the priceless gift of salvation, to fail to cultivate its deeper meanings. I refuse to die without making a difference in the lives of others. I am ready to go back to school, Lord. I am ready to become a disciple in order that I might make disciples.

UNREACHED
PEOPLE GROUP TO PRAY FOR

Danuwar Rai
of Nepal

MISSION QUOTE

The average pastor views his assignment as shepherd of a local church – perhaps one that supports a missionary, while he ought to see himself as stewarding people and resources for a global mission.

Produced for Church of God
World Missions
Dr. Tim Hill, Director
Church of God - Prayer Ministries
P. Douglas Small, Coordinator
www.praycog.org
1-855-84-ALIVE

INTERCEDE FOR...

MONDAY

Finding the Unreached

Pray for prayer teams to go and break up the soil through worship and intercession in this poor and undeveloped region.

TUESDAY

Nurturing New Believers

Ask the Holy Spirit to complete the work begun in the hearts of the few Danuwar believers through adequate discipleship.

WEDNESDAY

Investing

Ask the Holy Spirit to open the hearts of Nepal's governmental leaders to the Gospel and that those few Christians would not be shunned by their families for their beliefs.

THURSDAY

Sending

Pray for Nepal as it has long been hidden away and forgotten by most of the world.

FRIDAY

Harvesting

Pray that the Lord of the harvest will raise long-term laborers to live and work among the Rai.

UNREACHED
PEOPLE GROUP TO PRAY FOR

Danuwar Rai
of Nepal

MISSION QUOTE

The average pastor views his assignment as shepherd of a local church – perhaps one that supports a missionary, while he ought to see himself as stewarding people and resources for a global mission.

Produced for Church of God
World Missions
Dr. Tim Hill, Director
Church of God - Prayer Ministries
P. Douglas Small, Coordinator
www.praycog.org
1-855-84-ALIVE

INTERCEDE FOR...

MONDAY

Finding the Unreached

Pray for prayer teams to go and break up the soil through worship and intercession in this poor and undeveloped region.

TUESDAY

Nurturing New Believers

Ask the Holy Spirit to complete the work begun in the hearts of the few Danuwar believers through adequate discipleship.

WEDNESDAY

Investing

Ask the Holy Spirit to open the hearts of Nepal's governmental leaders to the Gospel and that those few Christians would not be shunned by their families for their beliefs.

THURSDAY

Sending

Pray for Nepal as it has long been hidden away and forgotten by most of the world.

FRIDAY

Harvesting

Pray that the Lord of the harvest will raise long-term laborers to live and work among the Rai.