

MISSION FACTS

Two billion people have not yet heard about Jesus. Most live in areas dominated by Islam, Buddhism and Hinduism. They are the poorest of the world's poor.

HEART CHECK

Am I going to break my silence and share? Anywhere? Everywhere? Will the reality of who you are and what you did become so compelling that it bursts forth from me like an unstoppable fountain. Eight or eighty, rich or poor, professionally trained or blue-collar – help me say, “I will no longer be silent!”

THE MANDATE

Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature! (Mark 16:15).

THE MEDITATION

Lord, I wonder how I would have felt standing in the crowd, only a few yards from you, when you uttered the words, “Go, tell the nations!” Would I feel differently about them than I do now – a continent and two millennia removed? Would I have assumed you were talking to someone else, “Peter, he’s talking to you!” If you had looked at me, would I have assumed that you were gazing at someone else? “Surely, Jesus, you can’t mean me! Me – go? Me – preach?” Interpreting the word ‘preach’ as ‘share,’ I still might have protested, “Me? Into all the world? To every creature?”

I wonder, had I been there that day, could I have forgotten it all. Too much had happened. The miracles. The mind-bending teaching. The healings. The crowds – everywhere you went. The confrontations. The radical ideas – good news for the poor and the oppressed, healing for broken hearts, the opening of prisons for the wrongly exploited, the unshackling of those in bondage. The year of Jubilee! And the bloody crucifixion followed by the mindboggling resurrection and the astonishing ascension.

Maybe for us in the 21st century, this is too much like a suspense novel or action-thriller movie, too unbelievable. But it is no mere dream. You’re waiting right now for my answer, aren’t you?
