

MISSION FACTS

With 130 million dogs and cats alone, Americans bought $2.9 billion worth of pet drugs in one recent year. What would that same money buy in medications for those in need across the world?

THE MANDATE

If you knew the gift of God...you would have asked Him and He would have given you the living water (John 4:10).

THE MEDITATION

Jesus, this woman had her own religion – “We worship in this mountain...you say Jerusalem is the place to worship.” Our evangelism efforts get bogged down in the same controversies, an endless wrangling over religious issues. You cut through all that. You awakened hunger in this woman. You reached past all the religion and touched a deep need. She was thirsty. She needed a life-change. All around us are people like her – trapped in dead religious systems, living lives that only deepen their wounds. Help us to get past arguing about religion, and touch the need deep inside them. “Give me this water!” she says. You don’t even respond to her doubts about you – “You have nothing to draw with. This is a deep well.” You press her. You ask her to call her husband, knowing the personal condition of her life. Yet, you are not condemning – only coaching her to place of transparent honesty. Suddenly, she knows you are her answer. You say to her, “I am He!” You’ll say that to those we meet at some well. You can and will reveal yourself to them.

HEART CHECK

May I stop saying – “That person won’t become a Christian. That man can’t be won! Not her!” Open my eyes to the possibility that all men might be saved.

Help me to trust your presence. I don’t want to try to argue people into conversion. I don’t want to relate to them in a shaming and demeaning way. They need an awakening that comes only from the Holy Spirit. Only he can rouse the thirst in their heart. Lead me to thirsty people. Let me find them at the well, with you working in their hearts. Save them. They’ll make the best evangelists. They will tell whole cities what you have done.

Pray that Bishnupuria believers in India would be burdened for their Bishnupuria brothers and sisters in Bangladesh who do not know Jesus.

WEDNESDAY
